Thursday, March 22. 1705.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated March. 26.

Venice, March 13.

THE Electors of Bavaria, who 'twas thought would have waited here the coming of the Queen Dowager of Poland her Mother, went from hence the 10th Instant to Padua, where the said Queen her Mother arriv'd 3 Days before. We expect them here in 2 or 3 Days, and suppose they will make some stay here they having caus'd a fine Palace to be hir'd for them: several Venetian Nobles who have Country Seats on the side of the Brenta, have made great Preparations for the Reception of her Majesty of Poland and her Electoral Highness of Bavaria, who are to come down the side of that River hither. The Letters from Constantinople of the 27th of January import, that the new grand Vizier Achmet was banish'd to the Island of Lemnos, where upon his Arrival a Capigi Bathaw (as the Report ran,) put him to Death, That the Aga of the Janisaries, the chief Judge of Natolia, and other Officers that were the Creatures of the said Vizier, were turn'd out: That the Crime imputed to him, was a Design to depose the Grand Signior and advance Ibrahim his Nephew into his Room; which Design the Vizier was said to have form'd, out of uneasiness at the Sultan's demanding of him a daily Account of his Actions, in Order to hinder his executing his Office in despotick Manner. These Letters add, that the Grand Signior was not making any Preparations of War by Land; that indeed he had order'd a Fleet to be fitted out; but that he was entirely determin'd to observe the Peace made with the Emperor at Carlowitz.

From the Camp of the Duke de la Feuillade at Simiere near Nice, March 13. The Duke de la Feuillade being inform'd from several Places, and especially by Letters from the Prince of Monaco, that Monsieur de Senantes who retir'd from Torbia to Souspel with a Battallion of the Duke of Savoy's Regular Troops and 600 of his Militia, was drawing together more Men in the Mountains, with design to get with them into Nice, detach'd yesterday the Chevalier de Miane with 300 Grenadiers, 300 Foot, and 260 Dragoons, all chosen Men, to attack the Enemy. The Chevalier de Miane arriving at Souspel at 9 a Clock at Night, attack'd the Enemy so vigorously, that he kill'd about 100 of them on the Spot, wounded several of them, and took 60 Prisoners, the rest betaking themselves to Flight among the Hills. This Morning we made our selves Masters of Torbia, in which were 10 Soldiers and 50 arm'd Peasants, who surrender'd without making any Resistance. Our Squadron is off Nice, but cannot enter the Bay of Villa-Franca because of the contrary Winds: The Attack of the Castle of Villa-Franca is deferr'd till our Squadron come into the Bay.

Auburg, March 19. The Prussian Troops that winter'd in Bavaria, have at length begun their March towards Italy; and with them the Imperial Regiment of Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg, which is compos'd of 1000 effective Men. The Armies of Munich and other fortified Places in Bavaria are evacuating, and the Stores found in them are deliver'd to the Imperialists; And to prevent any Commotions, 'tis talk'd all the said fortified Places will be demolish'd, Ingolstadt excepted, in which the Emperor will maintain a strong Garrison. It having been discover'd the Bavarian Soldiers, who were disbanded upon the Treaty concluded between his Imperial Majesty and the Electors, make a Practice of going 8 or 10 together towards Switzerland and France, in order to repair to the Netherlands to serve under the Elector their Master; a watchful Eye is at present kept over them: And some having been seiz'd in the Fact, have been hang'd without Form of Process, for an Example to others.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Mar. 27. Amsterdam, Mar. 27. The Advices from Germany are, that the States of the Circle of Bavaria assembled at Ratisbon, have return'd answer to the Proposals made to them on the Part of the Emperor, that they are not in a Condition to furnish what is demanded of them, by Reason of the great Damage they have suffer'd by the Marches and Countermarches of the Troops, by the military Executions they have undergone, and by the Quarters they have been oblig'd to give; but that they will not fail to do what is in their Power, to content his Imperial Majesty, Saltzboroug has already promis'd to furnish 1500 Men, which are actually levying. Passau will furnish 170. Treisingen 100. Sulzbach 80. Ratisbon 100. The rest of the Members of the said Estates have not declar'd their Resolution. 'Tis said the King of the Romans has written a very pressing Letter to them on this Occasion.

From the Paris Letter, dated March 23.

Paris, March 23. They write from Montpellier, that four turbulent Persons having got together about 20 Men, with design to renew the Tronbles in Languedoc; some Camisars who have accepted the King's Pardon, drew together and surrounded them, took and brought them to Monsieur de Basville, and desir'd him to send them in Banishment out of the Kingdom, that they might make no more Disturbance in it.
